Innovation in Employer Healthcare at Delta Airlines

Alyson Smith, MD is dual board certified in Family Medicine and Addiction Medicine. She joined Delta Air Lines in 2021 after more than a decade of patient care and leadership in medicine. Dr. Smith completed fellowships at both the University of Washington and Oregon Health & Science University. She led the development and growth of an innovative startup company treating substance use disorders through telehealth. As Managing Director of Health and Wellness at Delta Air Lines, Dr. Smith leads and supports the teams that oversee employee healthcare and pharmacy benefits, disability and workers compensation, and Delta's rich consumer trust. Her background in medicine allows her to focus on the quality of care and experience for Delta employees and their families, and to work to reduce cost and barriers to care.
